Sylvania, Honolulu, May 13.—As a part of the gigantic maneuvers being waged by the United States navy in working fleet problem 16, the battleship Utah with 700 marines, and the carrier Langley with 30 planes, were revealed enroute to a secret destination 1200 miles westward.

The marines and flyers will be put under hard training for landing operations as they work under the protection of huge guns from accompanying battleships of the white fleet.

Meanwhile 32 out of 153 naval craft remained at anchor here as supplies and fuel were loaded preparatory to departure of both the white and black units which later will engage in mock warfare in the midway-Hawaii area.

Two Are Killed.
Two destroyers, the Lea and Sicard, which collided and killed Richard Chadwick, gunners mate, of Blissfield, Mich., and injured four others were drydocked in Pearl harbor for repairs.

Officials indicated there probably would be no inquiry into Chadwick's

PA NEW OBSERVES

Pa Newc is informed that the extensive apple orchards, along the Wilmington road, about six miles north of the city, are now in full bloom. The trees are loaded down with blossoms, and the sight is one of the prettiest spring exhibits. Hundreds of persons annually view the orchards when in bloom. The orchards extend along the road leading from the Wilmington road to Neshannock cemetery, as well as along the Wilmington concrete highway.

Much heavier posts are being placed along the plying on the hill leading down to the harbor on the New Bedford road. Apparently the new type of guard is to be erected on the highway.

Those who were in charge of the tag day sale on the South Side encountered a little tag, who was undoubtedly the youngest contributor of the day, in little James Ambrose, age six. A group of children were being told why the tags were being sold, when he wandered into the circle about the tag salesmen, and wanted to know if he could "buy one of those tags for a nickel to send the boys and girls to play." Little Jimmy had intended spending the nickel for candy, he said but would rather give it to the band, so he was accommodated.

Young Pa Newc observed this morning that workmen are busily engaged placing the new street signs on poles along East Washington street, near Arlington avenue.

Legislative Probe Of County Relief Situation Is Closed

After spending a half dozen days in hearing testimony in the investigation of the Lawrence County Emergency Relief Board, the legislative committee, authorized to conduct the investigation under a resolution of the House of representatives, concluded the hearing late Saturday afternoon at the county court house.

The committee which was composed of William J. Eroe, Jr., of New Castle, chairman; William G. Smith, of Grove City; William J. Klinger, of Butler; James Kelso, of North

Beaver township; and L. Norman Dille, of Greenville, have been taking testimony on Friday and Saturday of each week for the past three weeks.

The brunt of the complaints seemed to have been directed against the Relief Works Division, rather than the relief board, particularly during the latter phase of the investigation.

Rumors Of New Effort For Bonus Compromise

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, May 13.—Rumors of a new administration effort to compromise the cash bonus issue spread through the capitol today as an aroused public stormed the White House with telegraphic demands for enactment of the Patman bill.

Officials estimated the tide of telegrams to President Roosevelt and senators had passed the 150,000 mark for the last eight days. They reported a tremendous flood of messages pouring eastward in response to week-end radio appeals from bonus leaders, in support of the Pat-man measure.

The rumor of a new administration move toward compromising the issue arose out of the week-end of the president with Senator Joe T.
Robinson, senate floor leader, and Senator Pat Harrison (D) of Mississippi, head of the senate finance committee. Harrison sponsored one previous compromise, which the senate rejected in favor of the Vinson bill that later was discarded in favor of the Patman bill.

The Patman bill appeared to be

Mrs. Alice Newcomb, 27, and her four children were burned to death early today in their home at Stan-

five victims perished in their beds from the blaze that raged through the 100-year-old house. The mother and children were overcome by smoke as they slept, fire officials believe.

Husband At Party.
The tragedy occurred as the husband, Frank, 28, was on his way home from a party celebrating payday on the unemployment relief rolls. His dead children were Walter, six; Pearl, three; Norma, two,
and David, 15 months.

It was his wife's habit, the husband explained, to leave the lamp in the kitchen window for him. The lamp apparently upset, firemen said.

LITTLE KNOWN ABOUT VICTIM

Death resulted in the New Castle Hospital Sunday evening for a man, whose name is believed to be "John Schneider" but about whom little is known by local authorities, as a result of injuries received when he jumped or fell from the roof of the city-county home, Saturday evening about 9:30.

The man, who was about 68 years of age, had been taken to the home from the county jail on Thursday.
He had been docketed under the name of "John Doe" by the police, when arrested because he was acting queerly. He was placed in the infirmary at the county home, Superintendent Perry D. Snyder stated, where he continued to act queerly.

Saturday evening, they were told by other residents of the home that he was up on the roof, and when they went to bring him down, found that he had either jumped or fallen from the roof. He sustained a broken leg and other injuries, from which he died at 7:15 last evening.

When he came into the home, he was asked if his name was "Mike Wanok" and he replied that it was,
but other residents at the home, stated that he was known about the city as "John Schneider". He was believed to be an Austrian.
Coroner Orville Potter pronounced his death as suicide.

Make Charge In Poison Deaths Of Family Of Five

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 13.—Charged with homicide in connection with the mysterious poison deaths of his wife and four children, Frederick Gross, 49, mild-mannered bookkeeper today was formally arraigned in Brooklyn homicide court over protest of his attorney, Maurice Nias.

Hearing was postponed until next Monday and Gross was remanded to Raymond street jail without bail.
Protesting Gross has been held 48 hours without a formal hearing.
Nias said he would seek his release from custody on a writ of habeas corpus.

"I couldn't have poisoned my folks; I loved them," Gross has replied to all accusations.
Meanwhile health department toxicologists continued their examinations of the vital organs of the five victims, whose deaths were caused by the presence of thallium sulphate, a rare and deadly poison, in their food. Analysis of the cocoa which was consumed by two of the victims was expected to be completed today.

The victims of the plot were Gross's 38-year-old wife, a daughter,
Katherine, 7; another daughter,
Barbara, 18 months; Leo, 9, and Frederick, Jr., 6.

Free Concerts Being Planned

the project, there will be three free orchestra concerts per week in New

Elmer Patterson of the Emergency Educational Relief. The project has been approved by Harrisburg and it is thought money will be forth-concerts will be presented by the School Board Opposes Salary For Members

School directors of the New Castle

School board are against being paid for their services. Not only that but they are expressing their opposition to such a proposal to the states senator and two house members from this district.

The matter was brought up Saturday night at the board meeting by Director J. Herbert McIlvenny, who said, "at the present time there is a bill in the House of Representatives in Harrisburg which would place school directors on salary. I am firmly against such a bill, and I believe this board should go on record in the matter."

A. C. Hyde expressed his convictions briefly and concisely when he said, "I'll resign before I accept a salary for my services as a director.
The idea is preposterous."
Discussion was cut short when a motion was made which authorized the secretary of the board to write the legislative delegation and protest against the passage of such a bill and ask them to vote against it if it came to the floor for a vote.

The vote was passed with enthusiasm by the eight members present.
School board service is a patriotic duty and the members of the New Castle board are not "patriots."

Germany Casts Anxious Eyes Toward Poland

Death Of Marshal Pilsudski

HITLER MOVES TO GET REASSURANCE

Will Seek To Have Policies
Of Pilsudski Continued

By PIERRE J. HUSS

BERLIN, May 13.—Germany cast anxious eyes today toward the east, where a powerful figure allied in mind with Chancellor Adolf Hitler against communism, the proposed eastern Locarno and the new Franco-Soviet alliance was whisked from the scene at a moment when he shared the key to Europe's fate.

International News Service learned from highest sources that Germany will make every effort to obtain reassurance from Poland that her political policy will continue to run in the channel laid by the late Marshal Pilsudski.

Hitler Moves Swiftly

Acutely conscious of the situation,
Hitler moved swiftly after dispatching a telegram of condolence to Warsaw, tentatively ordering Premier Hermann Wilhelm Goering and two Reichswehr generals to participate in the funeral to offset the expected presence of Foreign Minister Laval of France.

He also ordered German government buildings' flags at half-staff and dispatched Secretary of State Meisner to the Polish legation to inscribe the Fuehrer's name first in the legation's condolence book.

Most significant of all was Hitler's decision to attend Pilsudski memorial services on the day of the funeral at Hedwig Cathedral, a Catholic edifice. It will be Hitler's first official visit to any Catholic church.

A foreign office spokesman expressed hope Poland would continue Pilsudski's policies and co-operation with Germany.

"Since Poland is wedged between the powerful Soviet and stronger Germany," he said, "she hasn't much choice beyond watching out she will not be swallowed by Russia or gnawed by Germany. We feel sure Poland will stick to her present policy."

MOSCOW GIVES WELCOME TO LAVAL

French Leader Visiting Soviet

Brilliant Welcome Is Accorded French Foreign Minister By Russians

PILSUDSKI'S DEATH AFFECTS CONFERENCE

By LINDESAY PARROTT
International News Service Staff Correspondent
MOSCOW, May 13.—Moscow today gave one of its most brilliant welcomes to Pierre Laval, the first French foreign minister ever to visit the red capital, and the first French cabinet minister to come here since the conclusion of the Franco-Soviet alliance.

The death of Marshal Pilsudski was foremost in the minds of Laval and foreign Commissar Maxim Litvinoff, who headed the delegation at the airport but no hint of this was revealed in the soviet greeting, contrasting sharply with the cold reception Laval received in Warsaw.

An honor guard of 200 picked troops, bands alternately playing the Marseillaise and Internationale and a platform decorated with mingled red flags and tricolors surrounded the official delegation.

Speaks Briefly
Passing through the lines of red-capped soldiers, Laval spoke briefly for his reception, and expressing faith in the collaboration of the two countries for peace.

Laval's first conversation with Litvinoff this afternoon opens in a more optimistic atmosphere than was at first believed but no hint of this was revealed in the soviet greeting, contrasting sharply with the cold reception Laval received in Warsaw.

All this was taken as a definite step towards the cherished soviet scheme of the eastern Locarno.

The death of Marshal Pilsudski is not generally known to the public.

COUNCIL TO PASS BOND ISSUE BILL

However, on the securing from the Public Service Commission of a writ of public convenience.

During council's session White explained that he did not believe that such a certificate would be granted unless it could be proved that the Pennsylvania Power company was not providing adequate service.

He said that it would be useless to hold an election should the commission not grant permission to build a plant and this is why he will draft a bill calling for an election contingent upon the certificate of public convenience being granted.

Attorney Walter S. Reynolds and John Bevan addressed council as being in favor of a plant. They argued against delay until the fall election to ascertain the sentiment of all of the people in the city.

Edward Davis suggested that a preliminary vote be taken by ballots either solicited or carried in newspaper advertisements. He maintained that this would be one way of quickly arriving at how sentiment here stands upon the proposal to have a bond issue and build a distributing system.

When Henry Hudson set out from Europe in the year 1607 to reach India by the way of the New World like Columbus, his plan was to reach India by sailing over the North Pole.

His "rock-boat" the Hopewell, was staffed with ten men and a boy.

Pilsudski will be accorded two funerals—the first in Warsaw and the second in Cracow, where he will be buried. Between now and the day of the services, the body will lie in state at Belvedere palace, where his people and foreign representatives will pay him homage.

Advices from all parts of Poland indicated the country was calm, but adequate precautions were being taken. Flags were flown at half staff and draped with crepe.

Reopen King Humbert Hall

Large Crowd Attends Dedication Ceremonies At Hall On Sunday

BUILDING HAS BEEN IMPROVED

Impressiveness featured dedication exercises conducted on Sunday afternoon and evening, in the King Humbert hall, Division street, by members of the Umberto Primo society.

About 1,000 persons, including several notable personalities from New Castle, Pittsburgh, and a resident of Milan, Italy, were in attendance at exercises held for the purpose of formally re-opening the King Humbert hall, which has undergone extensive repairs during the past few weeks. The building has been attractively painted by Albert Rozzi, of Maitland street, and a corps of South Side men.

The occasion started early Sunday afternoon, when President Raymond Peluso dedicated a bronze plaque with the picture of the late Michael Conti, one of the founders and most active members of the organization, who passed away several weeks ago. During the course of the meeting, Peter P. Capitola, who was in charge of the event, introduced the following speakers: Mayor Charles E. Mayne, Dr. John Palazzo, Lawrence County Judge R. L. Hildebrand, Attorney John Powers, H. Hess and Angelo Fiala. The men responded with appropriate addresses, congratulating the south side society for its steady progress. The speakers also paid a fitting tribute to the late Michael Conti.

Banquet In Evening
The evening program included a delicious chicken dinner, served in the hall. Peter P. Capitola, the toastmaster of the evening, proved a felicitous one. Dr. Nino Calabro, Italian consul of Pittsburgh, one of the principal speakers, chose as his topic, "Patriotism." He brought out many worthwhile ideas. At the request of Consul Calabro, the gathering, about 500 in number, paid homage to the late Michael Conti, by standing and remaining silent for one minute.

Toastmaster Capitola, in behalf of the Umberto Primo society, presented Mrs. Michael Conti with a bouquet of flowers. Mrs. Conti responded with an appropriate speech of appreciation. Cavalier Felice Missaglia, chief of the Electrical Construction department, Milan, Italy, the next speaker, told of the rapid progress of Italy during the past 10 years, under the leadership of Benito Mussolini.

In a most interesting manner, Angelo Fiala complimented the society for its progress. Others who said a few words included: President Joseph Tomasello, Rinascenta lodge; John DeLorenzo, of Sons of Italy, a representative of Duce of Abruzzi; of Croton, H. Hess and Attorney John Powers. President Raymond Peluso closed the successful occasion by thanking the various organizations for the splendid co-operation received.

Several vocal numbers rendered by Delle Fava of Youngstown, were thoroughly enjoyed. The Duce of Abruzzi band, under the direction of B. J. Biondi and Louis Gaspero, furnished delightful music for the occasion.

Honored guests at the banquet last evening were: Dr. Nino Calabro, Italian consul of Pittsburgh; Cavalier Felice Missaglia of Milan, Italy; Dr. John Brunetti of Mellon bank, Pittsburgh; Attorney John Powers, H. Hess, Angelo Fiala and representatives of the following local lodges: Lodge Rinascenta, order Sons and Daughters of America; Trionfo Talico, Sons of Italy; Casa Savoia, Christopher Columbus society, St. Margaret Society, Duce of Abruzzi, Ellwood City lodge, Sons of Italy, and Victor Emmanuel society of Ellwood City.

The event was a huge success. Efforts of President Raymond Peluso and his aides were chiefly responsible for the outcome.

LOCAL WOMAN WEDS MERCER RESIDENT

MERCER, May 13.—At 6 o'clock this morning in the All Saints Catholic church, M. Helene Geary of New Castle, was united in marriage to Joseph Junkin, Mercer business man, by Rev. Father Dennis Mahoney.

They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Brown, of Greenville, the latter of whom is a sister of Miss Geary. Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served in the Brown home in Greenville, following which the newlyweds left on a week's honeymoon trip through the east.

Apply For Fund To Build Canal

Formal Application For Ten Million Dollars Is Forwarded To Washington

LIST PROJECT AS RELIEF WORKS JOB

Formal application for $10,000,000 to start the Beaver and Mahoning river waterway, as a relief works project, has been sent to Frank Walker, chairman of the works allotment division of the PWA, by the Chambers of Commerce of New Castle, Youngstown and Warren, O., it was stated today by J. C. Argetsinger of Youngstown, chairman of the canal committee.

The application points out that the Pittsburgh district, which is waging a bitter fight on the project, has through river improvements for which the local district has been taxed, obtained a cheap water rate on coal, enabling the Pittsburgh district to produce steel for far less than is possible in the New Castle-Youngstown district.

Approval of the Beaver-Mahoning project has been made by all necessary agencies, and only specific allotment for money with which to start work on the project is now needed to make the canal a reality, backers of the project assert.

Princess Mdivani Granted Divorce

Heiress Plans To Wed Count Von Haugwitz-Reventlow

(International News Service)
RENO, Nev., May 13.—Princess Barbara Hutton Mdivani today was granted a divorce from Prince Alexis Mdivani eleven minutes after she had entered the court room of Judge Thomas F. Moran.

Attractively dressed in black, the forty million dollar five and ten cent heiress entered the court room at 8:40 a. m., 30 minutes after her suit had been filed, and at 8:51 emerged with marital ties broken.

The decree paved the way for her reported plan to become the bride of the dashing Danish count, Count Von Haugwitz-Reventlow but her plans remained shrouded in deepest secrecy. Her attorney George Thatcher denied the count was in Nevada today but rumors persisted he was nearby and that a wedding would follow in a few hours.

CASTLETON BREAKFAST PARTY HONORS MOTHERS

Most touching and impressively carried out, was the Mothers' Daughters breakfast held in the dining room of The Castleton on Sunday morning, May 12, "Mother's Day" by members of the Junior Business and Professional Women's Club, marking their second annual event of this nature.

At 9:30 o'clock, guests numbering forty-two, sat down at long tables beautifully decorated in pastel tones of orchid and yellow, the splendid work of the committee on arrangements, comprising Alice Mae Huffman, Claudia Bowman and Virginia Conover.

Orchid programs and dainty name cards of the same tints, with a tiny bouquet of yellow flowers sketched by hand in the corner, marked the places. At each mothers place, was a pretty corsage and this was pinned on her shoulder by her daughter. These were made up of yellow rose buds mixed with lavender snapdragons. The centerpiece was a huge cluster of yellow roses and tall stalks of snapdragons of a purple hue.

At the conclusion of serving, a program was presented, with Alice Mae Huffman opening with the invocation. An appropriate song was read by Ruth Weir, and a "Toast To Mothers" was given by Sylvia Lee Martin. This was brought to a close by a duet sung by Alice Mitchell and Ruth Weir. As each guest donned their wraps, they went in a group to the First Presbyterian church, to hear Dr. John J. McIlvaine, pastor, deliver a splendid Mother's Day sermon, the concluding feature.

The occasion was one of the loveliest ever undertaken by the Junior B. P. W. members, and the committee in charge was highly complimented for the uniqueness of the entire program.

LOVELY PARTY HONORS MISS FRANCES WILSON

Most distinguished in every detail, and original too, was the miscellaneous shower tendered Miss Frances Wilson, bride-elect of the summer, given by her close friend, Miss Helen Blaha, both girls being at present located in Pittsburgh.

The event took place in the Blaha residence on Winter avenue, this city, Saturday afternoon and was in the form of a bridge, five tables of players being interested in winning honors at contract. When play was concluded, trophies were awarded to Mrs. Joseph McFate, Martha Jo McGoun and Iva Mayberry. Tallies and appointments that added to the enjoyment of the affair, were carried out in colors of pink and blue.

The hostess, aided by her mother, Mrs. Julius Blaha; Mrs. George Sheakley and Eunice Johnston, quickly re-arranged the tables and served a very delicious menu of refreshments. The same tones were predominant.

While the afternoon was seemingly brought to a close, and a period of interesting conversation was in progress, the hostess threw open the doors dividing the living room from the dining room and a unique setting greeted the eyes of her guests, and took the honored one by surprise. A pink silk parasol was seen, hung from the chandelier, with painty pink and blue streamers attached to spokes, which had tied at the opposite ends an array of attractively wrapped packages. These were presented to Miss Wilson, and when opened, she found a collection of beautiful gifts to use in her future home. The entire affair was most cleverly done.

Mrs. George Sheakley of Akron, O., and sister of the groom-to-be, was the only out of town guest.

Miss Wilson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson of Sumner avenue, who will wed Francis Sowersby, the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Sowersby of Winter avenue. The date of their wedding has not yet been revealed.

BRYAN-GLASS WEDDING QUIET

The marriage of Martha Eleanor Bryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bryan of Walnut street, and George Edmund Glass, son of Mrs. William Evans of Lutton street, was solemnized Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the study of the Second U. P. church, the Rev. Chauncey K. McGee officiating.

The bride wore a travel suit of navy blue trimmed with fox, and corn colored accessories. Her flowers were a corsage bouquet of yellow roses and daisies. Isabel Bryan, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a black and white suit, and white accessories, and carried a corsage bouquet of roses and sweet peas.

John Watson served the groom as best man. After the ceremony an informal reception followed at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride was graduated from the New Castle senior high school with the class of 1934. The groom was graduated in the class of 1932, and is affiliated with Atwell & Gowell.

Five tables of contract provided further pleasure with beautiful prizes for the winners. Cut flowers were used profusely in decorating, accentuating a pink and white color scheme in the very delightful menu served. ROCHESTER WEDDING OF INTEREST HERE

Of interest to a large circle of friends in New Castle is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Mildred Romigh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Romigh, of Rochester, Pa., to William David Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Walker of West Clayton street, this city.

The marriage took place in the bride's home, Rochester, at 5:30 p. m., Friday, with Rev. Reed Shepherd, pastor of the Grace Lutheran church, officiating. The home was beautifully decorated throughout, and the fireplace of the living room was banked with a lovely array of palms and ferns.

The bridesmaid was Miss Helen Mae Moore of Rochester, and the best man was the brother of the groom, Eugene E. Walker. The bride carried a beautiful bouquet of orchids, tea roses and lilies of the valley, while her attendant carried a bouquet of tea roses and snapdragons.

A reception and wedding dinner followed. Guests from New Castle included Mr. and Mrs. David H. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin G. Walker and son, Bobby, Arthur H. Walker, Eugene E. Walker, Miss Marjorie Fisher, James Yeager, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McCartney, Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. C. Evan Campbell.

The young couple left for a wedding trip after the dinner. They plan, in the near future, to make their home in New Castle.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA FORMAL AT FIELD CLUB

In winding up the college term at Westminster, several of the sororities have entertained at their annual parties in the New Castle Field Club, and another of these events that proved most successful, was held Saturday evening in the clubhouse by members of the Alpha Gamma Delta members.

The occasion started off with the serving of dinner at 7:30 o'clock in the dining room, at tables attractively adorned with bouquets of the seasons flowers and favors. From 9 until 12 o'clock the guests in their formal attire, presented a pretty scene, when they danced to melodious tunes rendered by popular orchestra.

Acting as chaperones, were Dr. and Mrs. Robert F. Galbreath, Mrs. Elmer B. Russell and Dean Mary E. Turner.

Miss Alta Russell was chairman of the committee on arrangements, to whom credit goes for the enjoyable evening, entered into by fifty-four participants.

BETROTHAL REVEALED AT LOVELY BRIDGE

Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Young, of East Washington street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Rutherford, to Dr. Paul A. Cox, of Lancaster, Pa.

The interesting news was revealed at a bridge party given Saturday evening, by the Misses Kay and Jane Young, at their home. Several tables were in play for the popular game, concluding which attractive prizes were awarded to Mrs. Walter Patterson and Miss Margaret Varley.

Roses lent beauty to the home in decorating and a spring color theme predominated in a dainty luncheon menu. Among the guests were several from out of town including Miss Ted Hussey, of Conneville; Miss Helen Fleming, of Brownsville; Mrs. Walter Patterson, of Donora.

The bride-elect returned today to Brownsville, Pa., where she has been located for sometime as a Red Cross nurse, expecting to return to New Castle the latter part of the month to complete plans for a July wedding.

Budget Committee Of Athletic Council Makes Suggestions

Recommending several changes and not a few retrenchments the budget committee for the Athletic Council of the senior high school presented its report to the school board Saturday night when the board met. The committee is composed of J. Herbert McIlvenny and Carl Paisley. No action was taken on the recommendations, this being deferred until after the council has reviewed the budget recommendations.

The committee criticizes the fact that "scant attention is paid to any athletics but football." A little later the report says "New Castle demands a winning football team. Everybody has bent to this purpose with little thought to the individual player. The game has been lowered from its proper place as a student athletic contest to a financial racket and the effect on the players is bad."

"Local Athletics"
Concerning an all round athletic program the committee says, "owing to the lack of facilities and equipment the physical training of the male students has of necessity been restricted to those who engage in football, basketball, and track and the lack of equipment for these sports has of course further narrowed the field until physical education and training is confined to the vocal chords of the majority of the male students."

In passing on the request for 36 pairs of football pants, the budget committee says the inventory shows 12 pairs listed as good, 25 as fair and 25 as poor a total of 62 pairs. In the judgment of the committee 18 pairs of new pants will suffice.

As to a football camp the committee says "it is our opinion that an expenditure for maintaining a football camp is not warranted. If it appears to be necessary to maintain the camp the cost might be eliminated by placing it on a self-supporting basis by admitting other boys and charging them a fee."

Comment On Salaries
Salaries draw the following comment.
"The largest items of expense in the operation of athletics in our high school have been salaries and the cost of equipment. With an income of $30,000 or more per year, this cost was perhaps justified, but when the income is reduced more than 50%, salaries and equipment must be readjusted to meet the changed conditions. We are of the opinion that the set-up for salaries might better be based on a percentage plan of the gross receipts, based on the income of the past three years. We are of the further opinion that the salaries paid for athletic supervision in our high school are not properly proportioned and a more equitable set-up is desirable."

Bids For Equipment
Competitive bids for equipment is urged in one paragraph of the report. This paragraph follows: "A major expense is the purchase and maintenance of the players' equipment. Much of the criticism of the Athletic Council has been due to its permitting the Coach and Business Manager to make piecemeal purchases of regular equipment without fair competitive bidding. Such action is contrary to law and makes the Council liable to action for misuse of public funds. Equipment can be and should be purchased in advance of its immediate need and by competitive bidding only."

It is suggested that the cost of ticketmen may be reduced by eliminating outsiders brought in as ticket and turnstile checkers. In the opinion of the committee this work might well be done by the ticket manager. This recommendation brought a protest from Director W. L. Cleland who said that the present arrangement was a saver. A return to the old practice would result in slipshod methods and probable loss of tickets and revenue he said.

Criticize Spring Games
Spring football receipts are estimated upon the assumption that there will be two home games says the report. "Your committee is opposed to spring football games as detrimental to the players but necessary under the conclusions of financial expediency."

The budget shows a total estimated income from football and basketball as $13,600, and estimated expenditures as $13,182.50. The report will be placed before the Athletic Council for action.

LEONARD THE COMPLETE REFRIGERATOR

A Woman's Washington

"No One Except Her" An Unique Compliment Why Woman Was Named

By RILLA SCHROEDER
Central Press Writer.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—That difficult business in the Saar basin having been settled, Miss Sarah Wambaugh of the Saar plebiscite commission is in Washington to see her husband.

She plans to remain until a badly fitting pair of eyeglasses has been adjusted and until she has visited a bit with friends.

With the entire intelligentsia of the world from which to choose the League of Nations decided Miss Wambaugh, of Massachusetts, was the one person to handle the technical side of the most complicated political problem in the recent history of Europe—the self-determination of the Saar inhabitants.

Members of the commission had to be neutral and they should know something concerning the mechanics of plebiscites.

Headquarters of the league in Washington frankly admit:

"There was no one else except Miss Wambaugh. We all know she knows more about plebiscites than anyone else in the world."

Quite a compliment—"knows more than anyone else in the world"—but Miss Wambaugh failed to be appalled.

Once before she had been paid a similar compliment—when Peru asked her to act as adviser to the proposed Tacna-Arica plebiscite.

The daughter of Harvard University, Miss Wambaugh heard international affairs discussed when she was in the kindergarten. She learned her alphabet from books on international law.

Politics, in the broader sense, have always interested her. She wrote her first book on plebiscites when she was executive secretary of the Massachusetts branch of the Woman's Peace party. It was the first textbook on the subject. She has written a second and now she is working on a third, based on her experience in the Saar.

COURT OF LAST APPEAL
Court of last resort for veteran cases is the Board of Veterans' Appeal in Washington. Three members of the board are women. They are Mrs. Carroll Stewart, Mrs. Thornton Lee Brown and Mrs. Lucy S. Howarth.

Prior to coming to Washington Mrs. Stewart was civil service commissioner of Los Angeles. She has been active in politics ever since the convention of 1912 which nominated Woodrow Wilson and has participated in every national political campaign since. Mrs. Brown relinquished a position as special representative in Missouri of the Federal Deposit Insurance company to accept her post with the board and Mrs. Howarth was in the Mississippi state legislature at the time of her appointment. The story is told that a fellow legislator of Mrs. Howarth's who was opposing her stand on a certain matter, approached her husband and law partner, Joe Howarth, with the idea of securing his cooperation in persuading the lady to change her mind. Mr. Howarth told him:

"It took me five years to change her mind about marrying me."

HOW SHE LEARNED PRINTING
Second in command at the world's largest printing establishment, the government printing office in Washington, is Miss Jo Coffin, assistant to the public printer.

Miss Coffin learned her trade from a tramp printer in Iowa and when other little girls were still dreaming of dolls, was devoting herself to the study of type and composition. Working on country weeklies she saw the world, winding up as a copy cutter in the old New York World.

She is jolly, good looking and one of the best glad handers in Washington.

On Court House Hill

Naturalization court for final papers will be held at the court house on Monday, May 27. Cards notifying the applicants to appear will be sent out this week. There are 40 on the list.

Registering assessors in boroughs and townships are expected to finish the registration and party enrollment, not later than May 27. The law requires that copies of the original registration lists be hung on doors where elections will be held.

A Pinchot road leading from the Perry highway at a point near the Jordan farm east to the Plaingrove road, is reported to be in bad condition as a result of frost during the past winter. In some spots the surface is gone. The highway department plans to repair the road at an early date.

Deputy Sheriff Elmer Taylor reports that there are now twenty-five male and one female prisoners in the county jail. There has not been much change in the jail population during the past few months. There are quite a number who have given bail for the June term of quarter sessions court.

Tuesdays and Fridays are visiting days at the Huntingdon Industrial reform school, according to a letter received by Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard from Supt. John R. Crandall. No visitors are allowed on Saturdays or holidays. Boys are allowed to write home once a month and are entitled to receive one letter a week.

Register of Graves, Thomas Edmonds received a letter from the war department today asking if there had been any thefts of markers from soldiers graves in local cemeteries, such as have been reported in other places. Mr. Edmonds has not heard of any here. In some sections the markers have been stolen and sold for junk.

Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard has received a number of complimentary letters from organizations and individuals commending his leadership in the recent number raids. One of these is from the Men's Bible Class of the Second United Presbyterian church, and another is from the Rev. S. E. Irvine, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church. Rev. Irvine, among other things says, "I wish to compliment you on the splendid work done. It was the best planned and most successful raid I have ever known. You have put yourself on record not only as a competent official, but one who is willing to live up to his oath of office. You have commended yourself to all right thinking people of this community." Resolutions commending the sheriff were also received from the Rotary Club and John B. Offutt of the New Castle Notion Company, and others.

July 4th will be more than a celebration of independence day to many Lawrence county citizens this year. It will be the first day on which they can secure signatures to nomination petitions for county, city, borough and township offices. Some candidates believe there is an advantage in getting papers out early, so it is likely that many of them will be ready to ask for signatures at the opening going. It is doubtful if there is very much advantage in being first to file papers. The fact that a voter signs a nomination paper does not obligate him or her to vote for the candidate at the primary. Indications are that there will be plenty of candidates. For all county offices at least 100 qualified electors must be secured on a nomination petition. For all third class city, borough and township offices at least ten qualified electors must be secured. Candidates for judge must have 200 names on their nomination papers.

Board Complies With State Law

Complying with the provisions of the Huffman-Rankin act passed recently the New Castle school board passed a resolution Saturday night authorizing the abatement of all tax penalties under the provisions of the act.

The act is not entirely clear as yet and will require some interpretation. The resolution covers the board under whatever interpretation is made.

Five Are Dead In Mine Fire

Six Others Are In Hospital
As Result Of Mine
Blaze

(International News Service)
FAIRMONT, W. Va., May 13.—Inspectors and company officials today sought to establish the cause of a fire that swept through a mine of the Bethlehem Mine Corporation at nearby Barracksville yesterday claiming five lives and sending six other men to a hospital. The condition of one remains critical.

More than a hundred workmen battled nearly a day to bring the blaze under control. Although unable to determine origin of the fire which was believed to have started in a shaft, company officials said it did not result from an explosion. The victims were burned by hot steam from water forced back upon them when walls of the shaft collapsed. The dead are L. A. Howell, 50, a mine inspector prominent for his safety work in West Virginia; Terry Welt, 40; David W. Jones, 28; Jay Wells and Harry West, 30.

Halle Williams, 25, is the most serious of those injured. Others in Cook hospital here are W. M. Merry, 44; Robert Chandler, 50; John Morgan, 35; Emmitt Albert, 21 and K. W. Bartlett, 38.

Officials said most of the damage was confined to the shaft although the mine tippie was burned to some extent. When the fire started, no one was at work in the mine which normally employs 800 men.

FRANKFORT, Ky., May 13.—Police were scouring two counties today in search of five convicts who fled the state reformatory here armed with sub-machine guns stolen from the prison armory.

The escaping convicts locked two guards in a vault, forcing one to relinquish the armory keys. They fled through the main entrance where an automobile was waiting. Police later came upon the escape car near Spring Station where it had been abandoned when the fugitives commandeered a passing automobile.

His Hobby Seems To Be Step-Children

Mountaineer Acquires Twenty-Four As Result Of Matrimonial
Alliances

(International News Service)
UNIONTOWN, Pa., May 13.—When John C. Brownfield, 63 year old resident of the nearby mountain country, married for the second time recently, he not only acquired a family of 24 step-children, but also revived interest in a historic feud between the Brownfield and Tate "clans."

Brownfield, leader of one of the families involved, married Mrs. Nettie Tate, 37, widow of Iley Tate, murdered mountaineer, who was ambushed by his own sons, one of whom is now serving a life term for the act. The groom, only recently, was said to have battled with Perry Tate, brother of the slain man.

Through his marriage, Brownfield becomes the stepfather of 24 grandchildren, although he is a father to none. His first wife, widow Ellen Brady, had 12 children at the time of her marriage to Brownfield, and the present Mrs. Brownfield also has a family of 12 children.

Brownfield, 26 years older than his wife, held the latter on his knee when she was a baby and he was 28. Each has spent a life-time in the neighboring mountain district.

New Church Is Dedicated

East Liberty Presbyterian Church At Pittsburgh
Now In Service

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, May 13.—Erected by the late Richard B. Mellon and his wife, Jennie King Mellon as a $4,000 memorial to their mother, Pittsburgh's new East Liberty Presbyterian church today had been formally dedicated before a throng of 5,500 people who jammed its chapel and corridors.

Hundreds were turned away at the Mother's Day exercises which saw the presentation of the church to Richard K. Mellon, son of the donors, by its builders, and young Mellon's presentation of the lofty edifice to its congregation.

Although Mrs. Mellon co-donor of the church, her son and other members of the Mellon clan were present. Andrew W. Mellon, former secretary of the treasury and brother of Richard, remained in Washington where his income tax fight with the government is being heard.

Art Treasures In Cabin Homestead

Valuable Collection Can Be Found In Log House In Allegheny County

(International News Service)
TARENTUM, Pa., May 13.—In an old log cabin homestead, hidden away in the Allegheny county hills near here, rests one of the most interesting and valuable collection of paintings to be found anywhere in western Pennsylvania.

The collection is the property of Charles Heberer, whose own paintings are well known in France where he spent most of his life. Interested in landscape paintings, Heberer left Pittsburgh after a brief residence to live in the hill country that he regards as the most perfect setting for a landscapist.

In addition to his own works, Heberer possessed a valuable collection of the masters, including canvases of Velazquez, Gainsborough, Millet, Fraconard, Breughel and Sir Joshua Reynolds. All were acquired by the artist over a long period of years on the profits realized from his copies of the old masters.

Most of Heberer's collection consists of portraits, although he prefers to paint landscapes. In his own collection there are many canvases of the Allegheny County hills, revealing that country in all seasons and at various time intervals.

Record Rainfall Sweeps Chicago

CHICAGO, May 13.—The greatest rainfall in 62 years fell in Chicago Sunday, flooded thousands of basements, and brought more than 3,500 appeals for pumping service to the fire department.

A four hour electrical storm accompanied the rain but it was the heavy downpour which caused the greatest damage. The rainfall, 2.73 inches, was the heaviest for a day since 1873 when a fall of 2.82 inches was recorded.

May this year may be the wettest on record. The previous wettest May was in 1883, 7.32 inches. This year, with only a third of the month gone, the precipitation already is 5.19 inches.

The economic depression of the past few years has not lowered the general health of the people of the United States, according to Dr. Hugh S. Cummings, surgeon-general of the United States public health service.

HAND CUT ON CAN

Baby Lynn Livermore, aged three years, of Neshannock avenue extension, was brought to the Jameson Memorial hospital, Sunday evening about 7:30, to have a severe cut on the palm of his left hand dressed. The child was said to have received the injury on an old tin can. After the injury was dressed, he was taken to his home.

Colored linens frequently have lint on them when ironed. To prevent this wash well by themselves and rinse through three waters.

Roll in Turkish towel for an hour, and a half, straighten out and dry. Press on wrong side with moderately warm iron. This advice is especially good for colored handkerchiefs.

Scout Executive Tells Of Approaching Jamboree

Under the shadow of the nation's capitol at Washington in August will congregate what history may some day record as the greatest of all American Boy Scout gatherings—the 25th anniversary encampment of some 30,000 lively, keen-eyed American Boy Scouts.

Scout Executive Chester H. Childs, new part-time executive of the Lawrence county council, in a brief but interesting article, has pointed out some of the anticipated highlights of that summer convocation which President Roosevelt anxiously looks forward to. The New Castle troops will have a part in the affair and are making preparations for it.

Executive Story Follows:

What Mr. Childs has to say about it follows:

The national jamboree will be a great encampment of over 30,000 representative Scouts from all sections of the country, gathered to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the founding of scouting in America.

A great tent city of some 10,000 tents will house these 30,000 Scouts coming from north, south, east and west, "the most thoroughly representative group of American boys ever mobilized for a purpose of this character," to quote President Roosevelt in his radio message to Scouts on February 8, 1935.

Objectives of the Jamboree

First—to promote a new sense of national brotherhood and stimulate friendship among Scouts and Scouters who, from all over the country, will camp together and have a chance to know each other better. This will give an increased sense of national unity and stimulate the brotherhood of scouting.

Second—to provide an educational opportunity for Scouts to see the historic shrines of the nation's capital and thereby build an inspiring memory in the minds of every Scout and Scouter through favorable contact with the great historical traditions associated with the Capitol, the White House, Mount Vernon,

Arlington, the Washington monument, the Lincoln memorial and the National Capital City.

Third—to stimulate our program of citizenship training by visits during the jamboree to the national government offices which will spread a better knowledge and understanding of what our government means, its workings and facilities for serving the citizens of the United States.

Fourth—to give Scouts an opportunity to observe the methods and program of Scouts of other sections of the country, and to provide an opportunity for the exchange of ideas under actual camping conditions.

What Scouts Will See

Have an interesting and delightful experience in travel.

Live in a gigantic encampment with thousands of his fellow Scouts on the banks of the famous Potomac. Participate in rallies, pageants, demonstrations, campfires and hikes.

See and hear President Franklin D. Roosevelt, honorary president of the Boy Scouts of America, who will take part in the program.

Learn to know hundreds of Scouts and Scouters from every section of America and learn how they carry on their scouting program.

Become acquainted with Scouts from foreign nations and learn, first hand, some of their customs.

Visit the historic shrines of the nation. See its art treasures, museums and zoological gardens.

Study the workings of government at its center in the nation's capital and in its public buildings.

Have the greatest adventure yet in his life as a Scout.

NO CLUES FOUND

TO STRANGLED MAN

YOUNGSTOWN, May 13.—Completely without clues, city detectives and Mahoning County Sheriff Ralph Elser, apparently were baffled in attempts to learn the identity of a man whose body was found in the Mahoning river near Struthers. More than 100 persons viewed the body in attempts to identify it. Detectives sought to link the man's death with that of Tony Licastro, of Youngstown, whose body was found on a farm near New Castle, Pa., several months ago after he had been strangled with wire.

Vital Series At First Methodist Attracts Interest

Young People Having Guest Speakers Each Sunday Evening During Month

Believing that the problems of religion in a changing world are of more vital importance than at any time in history and that it is necessary to examine the sources that have molded the highest spiritual thought, the young people of the First Methodist Episcopal church have secured outstanding speakers for the four Sundays in May, meetings which all the young people, all church school teachers, all interested in Bible study have been attending. It is one of the most vigorous and vital series ever presented in the city.

The topics and speakers for the final two Sundays follow:

May 19 at 6:45 p. m., D. S. T.—"The Authors of the New Testament," Dr. C. S. Bennett of the First Christian church.

May 26 at 7:30 p. m., D. S. T.—"How To Read the Bible," Dr. Norris A. White of the First M. E. church. Those who have the privilege of studying Dr. White's instruction will find him at his best in this assignment.

The meetings will be held in the auditorium of the Teenage Department of the Sunday school.

Rabbi Avery Jonah Grossfield, of Temple Israel, was the guest speaker of May 5, and Dr. S. E. Irvine, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church, spoke on May 12.

Both meetings brought huge crowds and the interest is now at an even higher pitch.

Donkey Baseball Request Refused

No "Donkey Baseball" Game On Taggart Field Says School Board

No jackasses will be allowed on Taggart Field. At least not the four-legged kind. This is the dictum of the New Castle School Board following a request Saturday night from the Kiwanis club to stage a "donkey baseball game on the field on May 28-29-30.

The request was made by a committee of Kiwanians consisting of Attorney Gilbert E. Long, Fred C. Wolford, L. Claude Mantz and the advance agent of the donkeys, Mr. Benford. The committee presented the request and offered the board fifty per cent of the net profits and a guarantee of $200 underwritten for the "On To Madison" fund for the senior high school orchestra.

The donkeys wouldn't hurt the grass or the turf, according to Mr. Benford. He said they would guarantee to leave the field in the same good shape as they found it. The committee then retired and later the board took the matter up.

"I am opposed to this," said A. C. Hyde. "We have tried to keep Taggart Field in good shape for football games and have consistently refused to rent it out. Recently we refused the American Legion permission to use it for band practice and if we won't allow the Legion boys to use it I believe we should keep jackasses off."

A motion was presented which would have given the field to the Kiwanians for the games, with the stipulation that a $200 bond would be posted guaranteeing that the field would be left in good shape. The motion was defeated five to three and Taggart Field was saved from the jackasses.

Three Automobiles; One Truck Stolen

Four motor vehicles were stolen from different sections in and out of the city Saturday night according to police reports.

The persons who had their vehicles stolen were:

W. C. Reese, Castletown, R. D. 1, Chevrolet coupe, Pennsylvania license D. E. 783, which was stolen from Moravia street near Long avenue about 6:30 p. m.

Walter McCurdy, Harlansburg, model T truck, Pennsylvania license NJ886, stolen from rear of Farmers' Supply company at 8 p. m.

Elmer Farrell 321 Sampson St., Dodge sedan, Pennsylvania license 24897 stolen from in front of his home about 11:30 p. m.

J. W. Patterson, Scotland Lane, Buick sedan, license plate not given, stolen from his garage.

PURCHASE 25,000 SCHOOL TAX CARDS

Tax cards, 25,000 in all, were ordered purchased and printed Saturday night when the school board met. In past years the school taxes have gone out on the same card as the city taxes. This year the school board could not get the millage in time to get on the same cards as the city and it will be necessary to send out cards with the school taxes on.

"No, I don't carry life insurance—I own it!"

"YESSIR, those words get me madder'n a wet hen. Carry insurance. Carry your Aunt Minnie."

"I don't 'carry' the clothes in the closet or the food in the pantry. I own 'em!"

"And I own my life insurance. It's money I've saved—and it's mine. The insurance company is just taking awfully good care of it for me—and for millions of other smart people in this country."

"That money is going to send Buster and Betsy Ann to college."

"It's going to take care of their mother and them, too, if anything happens to me."

"And if nothing happens to me, it's going to take care of both the wife and me after the kids are married and on their own."

"Carry insurance—shucks! That sounds like carrying a load, when what those blessed old policies have done is to lift the biggest load off me that man has to carry—the load of uncertainty."

"No, sir, I don't carry insurance. But I OWN a sizeable piece of it—thank heaven."

The sooner you start to plan your future, the better future you will have. When your Life Insurance representative calls on you in the next few days, he will give you a copy of "How to Win Both Ways." This booklet tells you how to plan a future that means security for your family if you die, security for yourself and wife if you live. Don't fail to read it thoroughly.

B. & O. Agent Asks School Board To Use B. & O. Trains

Requests High School Orchestra Make Trip To Madison Via B. & O.

Appearing as the representative of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, S. J. Rhoads, agent for the company here, asked the school board on Saturday night to send the high school orchestra to Madison, Wis., via the B. & O. to Chicago.

"In ten years the B. & O. has not had any of the school excursion business," said Mr. Rhoads. "We have more men employed here than any other railroad. The orchestra took a vote as to what road it would like to use and the first vote showed all but six of the players favoring the B. & O."

"Since that time there appears to have been some pressure somewhere. I saw Mr. Orth of the high school and he said he did not have the saying of how the orchestra should travel. The B. & O. is the best road to Chicago and in view of all the facts I think we should get the business."

W. W. Duff asked Mr. Rhoads how the orchestra would be transferred in Chicago. "By the Parmelee Bus company," was the reply. "They have been in the business for years and know how to do it quickly and efficiently."

The board took no action in the matter, taking the position that it was an extra-school activity and they were not authorized to make the arrangements.

Re-elect McClung As Treasurer Of School Board

L. W. McClung was re-elected school treasurer Saturday night by the New Castle School Board at a salary of $1000, out of which Mr. McClung must pay his own bond. The premium for the bond amounts to $750. Mr. McClung will serve the full year in spite of the fact that his term as City Treasurer and tax collector for the schools expires in January 1935. This in order to avoid the payment of two bond premiums. Should he resign when his term as city treasurer is up there would be no refund of premium and he agreed to full out the year's service for him for six months with little remuneration.

Controversy On New Proposals

Constitutional Revision And Social And Labor Bills Bring Issues

TAX PROGRAM IS NOW ABOUT READY

By SIDNEY H. EIGES
International News Service Staff Correspondent
HARRISBURG, May 13.—New skirmishes between Gov. George H. Earle and the Republican senate over constitutional revision and social and labor bills loomed today in the wake of a bi-partisan agreement of a $60,000,000 tax program to finance relief for the next year.

Democratic leaders were divided over the advisability of making an extended fight on social and economic legislation, but Governor Earle has repeatedly stated he stands firm in his determination to force his program through the legislature. Some party leaders were willing to rest on laurels achieved by the governor in the tax fight; others believed the victory should be utilized to push administration bills toward enactment.

Tax Program Ready
Most of the tax program was in position for final enactment this week although slight revision may be necessitated because of Republican and Democratic discrepancies over the yields to be expected from the 10 new taxes. Republicans say they will bring in $60,000,000 a year but Governor Earle says the yield is $57,675,000. Protests of merchants over the proposed doubling of the mercantile tax now a half-mill may result in further revision.

In accordance with precedent established when Grover S. Talbot, Delaware, was speaker of the house, the present speaker, Wilson C. Sarig, Berks, will sponsor the bill appropriating the tax revenues for relief. The bill, now being prepared, may appear this week. It will probably be Speaker Sarig's only bill of the session.

A bitter battle will develop on the senate floor this week when Democrats attempt to amend the constitution revision bill, drastically revised by Republicans in committee. Democrats will attempt to knock out the provision limiting the state's borrowing to $50,000,000 in a new constitution, simplify the method of holding the referendum and reinstate the provision for electing delegates by congressional instead of senatorial districts. The outlook was for the bill to pass in its amended form, through the dispute into a conference committee of the two chambers.

Handcuffs For Education.
Pass The Patman Bill.
Velvet $7,250 A Yard.
The Robins And Men.
By ARTHUR BRISBANE

IN NEW YORK 30 young boys of the University Settlement, as part of a "crime-does-not-pay" education, were handcuffed by regular policemen, loaded into police wagons, and locked up in cells.

The theory was presumably that the 30 boys who had committed no crime would realize, after being handcuffed, that crime is unprofitable. It might, on the other hand, make them feel somewhat heroic, perhaps inspire them with the idea that crime might be at least interesting. Boys like excitement.

In France, schoolboys were taken to a public museum to see exhibits that showed the baleful effects of immoral living, as a warning. Some way might be found to inspire dread of crime and immorality without handcuffs or pathological exhibitions.

THERE IS AGITATION among "best minds" of the more ignorant kind because Mr. Jesse Jones of the R. F. C. says our states would not sink foul inflation would not infect us, all respectabilities would NOT be ruined, if government paid the veterans' bonus in new money.

Why should taxpayers pay 60 million dollars a year interest for bonus money when the country could print the money, save the interest, without increasing government debt, save the 66 million dollars in taxes each year, and give the soldiers perfectly good money?

WHAT IS THE LOCATION of the "pawnbroker complex" that makes it necessary for this country to pay interest on money that the government prints, and to which it gives its only value?

What is the difference between yellow bond and a piece of green money, each with a government promise to pay, and no other guarantee?

It makes a difference to the taxpayers, in the saving of exactly one-half, when money is issued, instead of bonds.

As well suggest that because one of them took a glass of beer on Monday he would drink a gallon of gin on Tuesday.

DON'T FORGET that countries that have "inflated" disastrously did so either to wipe out indebtedness dishonestly, or because they were already bankrupt.

This country has only four billions of currency in circulation and has eight and a half billions of gold locked up.

Write to your congressman and your two senators that you favor the Patman bill. This is little enough.

"Dear Sir: I favor paying the soldiers their bonus with new money, bearing no interest, and saving 66 million dollars a year for the taxpayers."

ONCE MONEY was really plentiful. Ask Mr. Mitchell Samuel, who knows about art objects. Mr. P. L. and Mr. G. B., everybody in New York knows them, both wanted the same piece of Fifteenth Century red velvet, once part of a priest's vestment. There was only one yard of the material. Mr. L. and Mrs. B. craved it, agreed that Mitchell Samuel should buy it, and to avoid bidding against each other, they would toss a coin to decide ownership.

Mr. L. said he would pay up to $5,000, no more. Mr. B. said "buy it anyhow". Mr. Samuel bought it "anyhow", paying $7,250 for one single yard of velvet.

Mr. B. got it.

THAT IS THE STORY. John Hertz, who created yellow cabs, and such things, and is now a solemn banker, was bluffed by Albert D. Lasker, in a friendly game of poker, when Hertz had two threes and Lasker had nothing. Hertz said: "You will never bluff me again if I have threes."

There was another game. Hertz again had two threes. Lasker bet $5,000. Hertz raised him $5,000. Lasker raised $10,000. Hertz called. Telling the story, he said: "Those were the times when money didn't mean anything."

Will those times come back, Fifteenth Century velvet at $7,250 a yard, and $20,000 bet on threes? Certainly, human nature does not change suddenly.

AT ITHACA, robins built their nest on top of the swinging steel boom of a steam crane. As the boom moves back and forth, the mother robin sits on her eggs placidly. The boom moves so slowly it makes no difference. Workmen and others say "foolish robin, no brains". Yet they all make their "nests" on this rolling ball of earth that turns 1,000 miles an hour on its axis, and travels more than 60 thousand miles an hour in its journey around the sun. "What we do not know does not disturb us."

MEN OUT OF WORK with no "relief", or job artificially created, started looting stores in St. John's, Newfoundland.

Police with clubs stopped the looting after 40 or 50 stores had been broken open, the city's light and power plant seriously damaged. Nine hundred were engaged in the looting and rioting.

President Roosevelt, if he chose, could say to his critics: "You haven't had THAT in America."

Parole Is Granted New Castle Youth
His Attorney Calls Prosecution Against Him Spite Work

BUTLER, Pa., May 13.—Arthur Wolf of New Castle, pleaded nolo contendere in court to two charges of breaking and entering, growing out of thefts committed in December, 1930. Henry Strobel of Great Belt, was the prosecutor in the case in which Wolf was accused of taking two automobile batteries belonging to the prosecutor. In the other case, Lee G. Frederick of Great Belt, was the prosecutor, and accused Wolf of taking a battery belonging to him.

Attorney Howard I. Painter, who represented the defendant, called the prosecution a matter of spite, pointing out the charges had not been preferred until February of this year. Wolf, he said, already had spent forty-nine days in jail. The real prosecutor, he said, was a man by the name of Sheets of Great Belt.

Under the circumstances, the defendant having spent forty-nine days in jail and pleaded guilty, Judge Wilson suspended sentence and paroled the young man for two years on condition he obeys the law, report monthly to Probation Officer Coulter, pay the costs in the case, and make restitution for the value of the stolen goods and pay to the use of Butler county $50 in monthly installments to be arranged by the probation officer. Wolf promised to return to his job in New Castle.

Postoffice Officials Prick Pipe Dream Of Quick Wealth Through Chain Letters

Chain letters in many cities have boosted postal receipts and reminded postoffice clerks and carriers of Christmas time.

By JAMES C. KINKAID
Central Press Writer
WASHINGTON, May 13.—Chattering stamp canceling machines are rattling out the message that the "dime-chain" fad is fast spreading eastward from its birth place in Colorado or California.

At the moment, however, postal officials are speculating as to the weight of the idea as a "fad" or a "racket". They are leaning more and more heavily to the belief that it is a racket as the chain fad spreads. It may have started as a "fad," but the "wise lads" of racketeering are fast entering the ranks of the "Prosperity club."

If you haven't yet received yours, it will probably come along in your next mail or two. The "Prosperity club" gives you $1,562.50 for a dime. That is, it does in theory. However, somebody has to pay out 15,625 dimes every time you collect that neat amount. Who loses?

The Losers
The answer is: Everybody participating—except the name at the head of the list, and the government postoffice department.

To explain the "why" of this, consider the following: If 15,625 persons contribute a dime each to your coffers, they will in turn desire to get their dime back. They send on the chain letter, and in a few more days the chain comes back to you. However, the chain has grown, by that time, until your name also is in the hands of 15,625 people. They may send their letters on to you, the chain becoming tighter and tighter all the time. Your profits are taken by those whose name appears at the top of the letters you receive.

If you send your dime along to all those to whom they should go, you will find your expenditures finally eating into your profits to such an extent that you are not only out the money you gain in your venture, but also the postage as well. Mailing 15,625 letters means you are spending approximately $300 to $400 or more in postage. The result is that you are out money in the end.

Fraud!
Of course, if you merely send the chain letter along and refuse to send the dime to the person appearing at the top of the list, you are cheating on the game. The result of this is that you are leaving yourself open for a penitentiary sentence by using the mails to defraud!

But, if everyone plays the game according to its rules, everyone is out money in the end, including the person who started the idea, unless that person happens to be on the "racket" end of the deal. If you have a few more moments' time, read the following lines and you'll see how nicely the "dime-chain" fad can be used to enrich some racketeer whose hobby is, to put it in the jargon of the underworld, "clipping the sucker".

The racketeer, recognizing a Potential Profits

In a city of 1,000,000 people, a racketeer could probably send out 10,000 of these letters in a few days' time, particularly if he has a gang operating with him in the venture. The overhead for forms and envelopes would then be reduced sharply and the profits from only half of the letters being sent along would run into upward of $2,500 or $3,000.

Number Of Farms In County Is Increasing

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent, New Castle News
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 13.—In the past five years the number of farms have increased about twice as rapidly in Lawrence county as the nation generally, according to figures just released by the Bureau of the Census.

The bureau reported Lawrence county farms as numbering 2,655 on January 1, 1935. This represented an increase of 419 farms, or almost 19 per cent, over the 2,236 farms in the county on April 1, 1930. In the same period, on the other hand, farms increased only nine per cent in number in 3,037 counties of the nation as a unit.

Butler county farms were reported as having increased about 12 per cent in the same period.

Democrats Fail To Agree On Postmastership

Vote Of County Committee Split On Three Names At Meeting Saturday

ELLWOOD CITY, May 13.—Postmastership of the Ellwood City post office is still a question mark after considerable delay.

Last Saturday the Democratic committee of Ellwood City met in the city building, there to vote on 10 names approved by the Federal government. The result of this committee's selection would in all probability be approved at Washington. The candidates for the office were: Frank M. Deemer, Clyde M. Buzard, Earl C. Marshall, Councilman Thomas A. Wilson, Judd C. Turner, Charles V. Patton, Councilman Thomas Menefee, Robert J. McKim, Joseph B. Collins and Chester L. Cable.

After cutting the list of candidates down to three, the committee failed to agree. The vote resulted in Charles V. Patton of Beaver county having five, Councilman Thomas A. Wilson 5 and Burgess Judd C. Turner 2, it is reported.

The committee is expected to meet again this week to go over the matter again.

Four Injured In Auto Accident

Accident Occurs On New Castle Road In Ellwood Saturday Afternoon

ELLWOOD CITY, May 13.—Four Ellwood City people were injured and brought to the local hospital after the cars of Thomas Patterson of Pittsburgh Circle and Frank J. Wimer of First avenue collided at Deemer's bend, Saturday afternoon.

According to a report given local police and an investigation conducted by them the accident happened when the car driven by Wimer made a left hand turn into a driveway, while traveling in the direction of New Castle. Mr. Patterson was coming towards Ellwood at the time. He went off the road to the right in an effort to avoid a collision. He was unable to turn left as there was some children on that side. His car struck the rear end of the Wimer car, damaging it considerably.

As a result of the crash Mrs. Wimer suffered cuts, lacerations, and bruises about the face and hands. Her step-daughter, Phyllis Jean received cuts and bruises. Mr. Wimer only received bruises and Mr. Patterson a scalp wound. All were brought to the local hospital by passing motorists after the accident. All but Mrs. Wimer were discharged yesterday.

House Leaders Resist Three Coming Thrusts

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 13.—House leaders today grided themselves to resist three anti-administration thrusts before Congress adjourns.

They are drives by the inflationists, the farm relief extremists and the 16-to-one silverites, who demand action on these measures despite administration objections.

Having held the House in line throughout the session, Speaker Byrns and the other chiefs are confident only administration measures will be approved from now on.

The soldiers' bonus, however, was an exception. It passed the House over President Roosevelt's opposition and Byrns has conceded the House will override his expected veto of the bill.

The most potent threat appeared to be the Frazier-Lemke farm re-financing bill, under which $3,000,000,000 in new currency would be issued to refinance farm debts at 1 1/2 percent interest. Representative Lemke (R) of North Dakota, forced the bill from the House agriculture committee with a favorable recommendation.

Representative White (D) of Idaho, who started a petition to force a 16-to-one silver bill to the House floor, intends to start his campaign this week.

"We have strong support," said White, "although I don't want to make rash predictions. We plan to begin a real campaign in a few days."

The third thrust at the administration's program is the drive for passage of the Thomas-Massingale bill, guaranteeing farmers cost of production. The bill is backed by the National Farmers Union.

Threatens "Expose" In Speech
In U. S. Senate On Situation

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, May 13.—A final showdown between Senator Huey P. Long (D) of Louisiana, and administration leaders over his demand for a senatorial investigation into the official conduct of Postmaster General James A. Farley today stole the senate spotlight from the bonus issue, the NRA and all other legislative matters.

Long threatened to "tear the roof off the capitol" with a sensational "expose" of what he called Farley's misconduct in connection with government construction contracts.

"Before this day is over," Long told International News Service, "I'll rock the nation's capital from end to end. I'll tear the roof off the capitol when I tear the mask off Farleyism and show this country how Farleyism has defrauded the government."

Asked to specify what charges he would attempt to prove against Farley, Long answered:

"Just wait until I speak in the senate: You'll get all the facts then."

Executive Director Johnson
Appeals For Public
Co-operation

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, May 13.—Reporting the third consecutive weekly decrease in the state's relief rolls, Robert L. Johnson, executive director, today again appealed for public cooperation in keeping relief administration free of politics, chiselers and inefficiency.

In the week ending May 4 the number of persons receiving relief declined 15,361 to 1,714,272, and the number of families declined from 457,115 to 453,432, a net decline of one per cent, Johnson reported. Of the 3,000 persons who accepted temporary employment since March 23 only 152 have returned to relief, the director said. Total expenditures for

Mobilizing Circus A Big Task

OTTO, FAMOUS CLOWN IN CHARACTER POSE BY STAFF ARTIST

When once mobilized for the season's tour, the people and the animals traveling with a great circus from a gigantic "family," whose ties are seldom broken, the "joining together" process is a tremendous task. Like the members of some world-wide convention, so do the recruits of the white tops journey from various and remote parts of the globe that the union of all nations and all species of animals may be effected.

They come by rivers or rail to the seas, over seas to continents and across continents to the long red and yellow trains that, for seven months, are to be their homes. Some make the journey in state-rooms, some in great, crated dens, others in mammoth tanks or in padded stalls—depending upon whether they be man, or brute. Dumb or the great outfit is divided into three human, the Babel-like throng comes from every part of the world. And when they have been centralized they continue to move onward, day after day, without noise or confusion, dispute or differences, guided by brains that make for peace, system and harmony.

Of such is the cosmopolitan inhabitants of the Cole Bros.-Clyde Beatty Circus, numbering 1,080 people, more than 812 wild animals, 500 horses, five herds of elephants, camels, ostriches and zebras. So large is the Cole Bros. family and so vast the equipment that, were it transported on railway cars of the ordinary type, nearly 100 coaches would be required to haul them. Since this would be impracticable, the famous showmen have had built special, double length cars. Thus trains more than a mile in length. These trains loaded with their cargoes of wonders are coming to New Castle, Wednesday, May 22.

This year's official statistics rate the Cole Bros.-Clyde Beatty Circus as the world's newest big show, and the most pretentious. The menagerie runs the gamut of things beautiful and monstrous from varieties of tropical birds to Jumbo, 2nd, the largest African elephant ever taken captive. The program in the main tent offers nearly three hours of splendid attractions opening with the magnificent spectacle of fairyland, "serenade of Spain."

An immense street parade will be seen on the downtown streets at 11 a. m. Doors to the Clyde Beatty menagerie will open at 1 and 7 p. m. The big show will start promptly at 2 and 8 p. m.

direct and work relief were $3,748,802 or $57,634 less than the preceding week.

Continuing his decentralization program, Johnson announced that hereafter county executive directors will be in full authority and the duties of field representatives from the Harrisburg headquarters will become entirely advisory.

"I again appeal to the public of the state of Pennsylvania to assist me in the task which I have to perform," Johnson said.

"I wish to know the details in connection with any matter which appears to any citizen to be irregular. This includes political activity in the administration, information about chiselers and information about my own staff who appear to be inefficient."

"I will not take action on any matter which is brought to my attention until it has been thoroughly investigated, but I desire information from anyone who feels that they have knowledge about a situation which needs investigating."

Johnson said his dictum that politics would be kept out of relief has been "lived up to the letter." No active political workers have been permitted to join the relief organization, he declared, and those who already are in the organization are being dismissed as rapidly as their activities become known.

New relief committees have been appointed in Allegheny, Beaver, Blair, Bucks, Centre, Clearfield, Crawford, Erie, Fayette, Luzerne, Montgomery, Philadelphia and Somerset counties, Johnson said. Although in these counties particularly the executive director will be in full authority, Johnson said he must look to the local advisory board for guidance. Executive directors were instructed to assist members of advisory committees wishing to study the board's methods of operation or make calls with investigators.

Governor To Set
Execution Date

(International News Service)
UNIONTOWN, Pa., May 13.—John Koziar, sentenced to death for the cold-blooded murder of a Massontown jeweler, regained his composure in county jail here today after a tearful Mother's Day.

Koziar's heart was touched yesterday as he listened to songs and recitations about "Mother." At the close of a half-hour service, his eyes were filled with tears as his thoughts wandered to his mother, Mrs. Anna Koziar, of Brownstown, W. Va.

Gov. George H. Earle is expected to set a date soon for the electrocution of Koziar for the killing of Herman Rosenheim.

CHISELER IS TOLD

Giants Defeat Pittsburgh, 3-1

Giants Hand Pirates Defeat As Padden Makes Three Wild Throws

By HOMER METZ
International News Service
Sports Writer
NEW YORK, May 13.—The New York Giants are the best club in baseball... at the moment.
Like a high powered racing car, clicking and pulsating on all cylinders, the Giants are responding magnificently to every directing move of Manager Bill Terry.

Pirates Defeated
Terry sent Bud Parmelee to the mound against the Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday and the speed-ball artist came through with a four-hit classic for his fourth consecutive victory of the year. The score was 3 to 1.

Big Jim Weaver worked on the mound for the Pittsburghers and did a good job although he was handicapped by faulty throwing by his catcher, Tom Padden. Three wild tosses by Padden augmented stolen bases by Dick Bartell, Hughie Critz and Mel Ott.

The Giants' closest rivals... those surprising Brooklyn Dodgers... knocked off the Cincinnati Reds at Ebbets Field, 9 to 1. Van Mungo's smoke ball was working well and the Reds never got started. Sam Leslie, Dodger first baseman, got four hits in four times at bat and drove in five of his club's runs.
In Boston, Lon Warneke spread-eagled himself over the Braves batting order and led the Chicago Cubs to a 4 to 1 triumph for a clean sweep of the teams' three game series. Warneke held the Braves to seven hits and fanned six. Babe Ruth made two trips to the plate and fanned twice.

Cardinals Win
The St. Louis Cardinals won a free-hitting game from Jimmy Wilson's Quakers in Philadelphia, 10-8. Curt Davis, making his first start on the mound for the Phils since he suffered an arm mishap, April 21, was knocked out in less than two innings by the Cards. Phil Collins, sold to the Cardinals less than a week ago by the Phillies, made his first start in a new uniform, and lasted only six innings, although he received credit for the victory.

There was only one game in the American League.
George Blahodier and Buck Newsom divided six hits between them and the St. Louis Browns defeated the Boston Red Sox, 3 to 2. Ostermueller hurled for the Sox and was ineffective in the pinches. Rogers Hornsby abandoned his managerial toga long enough to drive in a ru. for his Browns with a pinch double in the seventh inning.

White Sox Buy Charles Fischer

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, May 13.—Charles Fischer, the answer to Jimmie Dykes' prayer for a southpaw pitcher, was awarded in the camp of the league leading White Sox today.

Fischer, who last year won six games in ten starts, was purchased from the Detroit Tigers and is expected to climb into a White Sox uniform before the club leaves for the east Wednesday.

Crowd Of 1,500 Fans At Centennial Field For Opening Game Of 1935 Season

BABS OUTHURLS TWO OPPONENTS

New Castle's 1935 Soft Ball season got away to a most auspicious start yesterday afternoon at Centennial Field with the Unions triumphing over the Radiators, 6 to 5 in a thrilling encounter. A crowd close to 1,500 fans witnessed the inaugural, and saw John Powers throw the first ball, and heard Mayor Charles Mayne make a short but interesting talk.

The Unions under Joe Diana and John Fair presented a snappy looking team, and were the underdogs in the contest with the champions of the past two years, but Frank Babs went to the mound for the Unions and kept the Radiators hits scattered and outside of two innings, had the Rads under control.

Unions Take Lead

The Rads took the lead in the second inning by scoring two runs, with the Unions coming back in the third frame to score three runs and take the lead. Three more runs in the fifth inning gave the Unions a 6 to 4 lead.

Dom Scarnati played a big part in the Union victory with a single that scored the first two Unions runs, while Chuck Summers with a pair of doubles was the heaviest hitter for the Rads. Texie Richards had two hits, both singles. Ambrosia had two hits for the Rads, with Greene having a double.

Regular League Game

Jack Llewellyn started for the Rads, but gave way to Bonfield in the fifth inning. Bonfield held the Unions scoreless. The Rads threatened in the ninth inning, but only scored one run. Fast fielding by the Unions kept the Rads off the bases. The game was a regular league game, and gives the Unions the leadership of the league.
The game was a benefit for the game will go to buy a pennant for the championship team. The sum of $10.00 was collected.

THE SPORT PATROL

BASEBALL BRIEFS

Ernie Lombardi, catcher of the Cincinnati Reds, equaled a major league record last Wednesday when he hit four successive two baggers in four successive times at bat in four successive innings off four different pitchers... Every day will be ladies' day at Wrigley Field in Chicago until further notice. Any woman who wishes to see the Cubs play at home can receive a pass for a game by sending a self-addressed envelope to the Cub management... One thousand and young players, all absolutely new to organized baseball, have signed contracts with the various minor league clubs since last November. This does not include the many youngsters who received trials at the training camps but failed to get contracts. Next to Ty Cobb, Babe Ruth probably is the richest player baseball has developed.

On April 30 the Redsox-Athletic game was called off at 9 o'clock in the morning because of threatening weather. However, no one thought to tell Joe Cronin about it and the Redsox manager, accompanied by Coach Tom Daly, went out to the park and dressed for the game. They waited and waited but none of the players showed up. Finally, when Cronin was beginning to think the team had deserted, Catcher Moe Berg strolled into the dressing room and informed Cronin that the game had been off for hours... Fred Fitzsimmons has set up an enviable pitching record against the Brooklyn Dodgers. In his 11 seasons as a major leaguer he has beaten the Dodgers 28 times while suffering only a dozen setbacks... Catcher Bill Dickey of the Yankees expects his hitting to improve this season as a result of adding about seven pounds to his frame.

Rumors say that a romance is budding between Julia Ruth, daughter of Babe Ruth, and Frank Hayes, catcher of the Buffalo team of the International league. Frank is the lad who showed so much promise as a rookie catcher last year with Connie Mack's Athletics... Ever since Lefty Gomez was a minor league pitcher he has been told he needed more weight but he got along all right from a pitching viewpoint in spite of the lack of poundage. "Now I have more weight, 20 pounds more, and I'm not sure it's helping me any," says Lefty. Old Larry Lajoie was one of the greatest hit-and-run batters in the game. Occasionally he would reach out with one hand and double or triple when a pitcher was purposely walking him. A big chew of tobacco used to be Larry's hit-and-run sign.

Mike Kelly, who led the National league in hitting as a member of the 1886 Chicago team, in 1,155 games covering 12 consecutive seasons, had a grand batting average of .321... Before a ball game Manager Bill Terry of the Giants always warms up with Travis Jackson. It's a habit and not a superstition... For two years in succession, 1926 and 1927, the Yankees covered 15,000 miles on spring exhibition jaunts through Florida, Texas and Oklahoma... When Johnny Marcum, one of Connie Mack's pitchers, was with Louisville, he roomed with Clyde Hatter, young southpaw now with Detroit. Since they are both in the American league you can expect to see them face each other on the mound most any day the teams meet.

Monsey, Bob Thompson, E. Johnson And Patrick Are Qualifying

Providing the Lawrence county entries qualify, this county will be well represented in the 1935 national open golf tournament, to be held at the treacherous Oakmont course, Pittsburgh, June 6-7-8.

Early this morning, Angelo Monsey, New Castle Field club pro, left for Pittsburgh, where he is among the 120 golfers who are competing in the 36-hole sectional qualifying round today. Monsey, better known as "Dykes," teed off at 8:27 a. m.
Three other Lawrence county representatives—Bob Thompson, B. Johnson and Andy Patrick, all of Ellwood City, Thompson, who is noted for his long drives, will be in a threesome with Jimmy Thomson, Long Beach, Calif., the longest hitter in golf.

Ted Blamer of West Middlesex, former Westminster athlete, is also competing.

HARRISBURG, May 13.—West Chester State Teachers College, the favorite, today held the state teachers' college championship in track and field by virtue of running away with most of the points in the annual meet here Saturday.

NEW YORK, May 13.—With an effect like the popping of champagne corks, the great golfers of a nation will go to work on one another today in a one-day war that will be all the more bitter and unremitting for its brevity. One expires or survives very quickly, though not painlessly, in the district qualifying rounds of the national open championship and, with 1,087 trying for only 122 places, there are likely to be some distinguished victims by nightfall.

M. Hagen, the man with the mahogany complexion, might even be one of these. He is taking the 36-hole test in the Detroit district and might conceivably fail, although truthfully he doesn't seem to have much to beat outside of Al Watrous and Charley Kocsis. However, that's one thing about golf.

Even when you haven't much to beat, it is always possible to beat yourself in 36 holes of medal play.

That being the case, consider the acrid bitterness of the fight that must be waged in the New York and Chicago districts, the former having 13 places in a field of 130 and Chicago having 14 qualifiers as against an entry of 139. Here, the former champions, Tommy Armour and Chick Evans, must show cause why they may be permitted to appear at Oakmont for the actual championship on June 6, 7 and 8.

Pittsburgh, May 13.—One hundred twenty aspirants for the crown of Old Dutch today awaited their turn for qualifying play at Oakmont's tortuous course, scene next month of the national open golf championship.

Seventy professionals and 50 amateurs made up the army of linksmen who jammed the course as two amateurs and an unattached "pro" drove off to test their hopes in Oakmont's bunkers and traps. Eleven places in the open are allocated this district.

School Music Is Lauded At Rotary

Club Today Pays Tribute
To Outstanding Work
Of System Here

ORCHESTRA GROUP OFFERS PROGRAM

Glowing tribute to the music division of the New Castle public schools system was paid by the Rotary Club today at its weekly luncheon-meeting in The Castleton.

As its guests the club welcomed 22 members of the Senior high school orchestra of 90 members, the orchestra which school authorities and citizens alike hope will be able to compete in the national orchestra contest at Madison, Wis., on Saturday, May 18. The musicians presented a short program.

Tributes in speeches came from Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of schools and a member of the club and from four board of education members who were in attendance. Dr. Green acted as chairman.

Griff Thomas, Leonard Cramer, A. W. Bauman and W. W. Duff spoke in turn and briefly commented upon the music instruction of the school system and of school work generally.

Mr. Duff, also a Rotarian, announced the repeat performance of "Growing Up," senior class play, at the Cathedral on Wednesday evening, May 15. He explained that proceeds will help send the New Castle orchestra to Madison.

Among today's guests was Dr. Ross M. Haverfield, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Monongahela City and a member of that city's Rotary club. He was called here by the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. S. G. Haverfield, who resides with her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Fullerton, near Mt. Jackson. Dr. Haverfield was the guest of Fred L. Rentz.

President Robert A. Eckles, secretary Carl E. Paisley and Harold R. McCulloch, president-elect of the club, will attend the annual state convention of Rotary clubs at Johnstown this week as official delegates of the local organization. Others will also attend part of the sessions. The convention opens Wednesday and closes Friday.

New Fire Truck Will Be Asked

Fourth Ward Citizens To Petition Council For
New Truck

Petitions which will ask city council for a new fire truck for the Fourth Ward are being circulated in the ward today and when filled out will be presented to council. The petition sets out that the present truck is 23 years old and incapable of doing efficient fire duty.

For some time there has been a quiet agitation in the Fourth Ward to ask council to move the site of the fire station from Ray street up to a point between the Thaddeus Stevens school and the city line. It is argued that when the Fourth Ward fire station was built the East Side was hardly built up at all from Ray street on out. The street car tracks ended at Ray street then, the Thaddeus Stevens school was only partially filled and what is now a dense residential section was open country.

Since then the ward has grown and is now built almost solidly to the city line. Side streets have been opened and filled, the Benjamin Franklin and Rose avenue schools have been built and thousands of residents added.

The present truck is inadequate. Should a fire break out and the "B" truck of Central station be in use at some other point, the East Side fire would have to wait until the Fourth Ward truck wheeled up the hill.

For this reason the residents intend asking council for a new truck which can be depended on to get to a fire in reasonably fast time.

Nazarene Minister And Delegates Return Home From Assembly In Niles, O.

Rev. C. F. Whetsell was re-named pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, this city, at the twenty-eighth annual assembly of the Pittsburgh District, Church of the Nazarene in Niles, O., which drew a successful conclusion yesterday.

Rev. Whetsell and delegates from the local church return from the assembly with glowing reports. It was the largest assembly the district has had in many years. Rev. C. W. Jones, of Alliance, O., the superintendent, was re-elected for the 8th term, by the first ballot. Rev. O. L. Benedum, of East Liverpool, O., was elected treasurer and Rev. Clyde B. Wood, of Uhrichsville, O., was elected secretary.

Eleven news churches were reported to the assembly. Receipts totaled $43,000 more than last year. Sunday morning at the First Methodist church, Niles, Dr. John W. Goodwin, of Pasadena, Calif., gen. supt., ordained the largest class of ministers on record in the assembly, thirteen in number, and five deaconesses. Rev. George E. Aycock, of Oklahoma was the assembly evangelist.
